

Squadron Leader Tim Davies, Officer Commanding OC Standards and Instructor Training Hawk T2, RAF Valley

Sqn Ldr Tim Davies is Officer Commanding Standards flight and responsible for all instructor training on the RAF's newest fast-jet training aircraft, the Hawk T2. Formally a Tornado GR4 pilot, 4-ship leader and Electronic Warfare Instructor, he has served on multiple exercises, including Red Flag, and completed 2 tours over Iraq. He recently served with the US Army in Kabul and was the Subject Matter Expert for the fatal Service Inquiry into the loss of XX179, a Red Arrows Hawk T1 that crashed in 2011. He is the longest serving executive officer on IV(R) Sqn and has grown the Squadron under UKMFTS. He has instructional experience on both the Hawk T1 and T2.